RULES OF THE FINNISH MUSICIANS UNION

Members shall follow the decisions of the meetings of the local branch and the union bodies, as well as the rules and regulations given by the union. Members shall also follow the collective agreements concluded by the union.

•

When making contracts of employment, members shall, when possible, use the model contracts confirmed by the union. The union does not undertake to give legal aid in disputes arising from verbal agreements.

•

Members shall inform the union or the local branch of changes in name, address or telephone number. The union office shall be informed, if a member is about to move abroad. If a member moves permanently to another city, he/she should also transfer the local branch. Both the former and the new local branch or the union office shall be informed about the transfer.

•

Members are obliged to pay the membership fee. If the fees have not been paid for a period of six months, the member is dismissed according to the union rules. Overdue payments are distrainable.

•

Members can apply for an exemption from the membership fee due to a family leave, military service or long illness or disability to work. Applications shall be sent to the union office. If a member applies for an exemption due to a family leave, a copy of the maternity/family allowance decision shall be attached. Members of the unemployment fund cannot be exempted from the unemployment fund fee.

•

Withdrawal from the union membership has to be done with a written notification to the union office. Withdrawal is valid from the end of the next month following the notification.
